1776, June 26	Departure of Robert Eden, Maryland's last colonial governor.
1776, July 3	Maryland Convention declared independence from Great Britain.
1776, July 4	Declaration of Independence adopted in Philadelphia. Engrossed copy
-	signed by Marylanders William Paca, Charles Carroll of Carrollton,
	Thomas Stone, and Samuel Chase.
1776, Nov. 3	Declaration of Rights adopted by Ninth Convention. Church of England
1770, 1407. 5	disestablished.
1776, Nov. 8
	First State Constitution adopted by Ninth Convention.
1776, Dec. 20–1777, March	Continental Congress met at Baltimore.
1777, Feb. 5	First General Assembly elected under State Constitution of 1776 met at
1501 34 1 1	Annapolis.
1781, March 1	Maryland ratified Articles of Confederation.
1781, Nov. 5	John Hanson elected President of the United States in Congress
	Assembled.
1782	Washington College established at Chestertown.
1783, Nov. 26–1784, June 3	Continental Congress met at Annapolis.
1783, Dec. 23	Washington resigned commission as commander in chief of the Continental Army at State House in Annapolis.
1784	St. John's College established at Annapolis.
1784, Jan. 14	Treaty of Paris ending Revolutionary War ratified by Congress at Annapolis.
1785, Aug	China trade begun with arrival of Canton cargo at Baltimore.
1785, Dec. 5	General Assembly endorsed Compact of 1785, an agreement with Virginia
•	on navigation and fishing in the Potomac and Chesapeake Bay.
1786, Sept. 11–14	Annapolis Convention held to discuss revisions to Articles of Confederation. Maryland sent no representatives.
1788, April 26	Maryland ratified Federal Constitution.
1791, Dec. 19	Maryland ceded land for District of Columbia.
1796	Baltimore City incorporated.
1802	Property qualification for voting removed in local elections.
1002	Troperty quantification for voting removed in local elections.
1803
1803	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.
1807, Dec. 18	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot. University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.
	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot. University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland. Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-
1807, Dec. 18	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot. University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland. Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.
1807, Dec. 18	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot. University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland. Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen. Free blacks disenfranchised.
1810	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.  University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.  Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.  Free blacks disenfranchised.  Battle of Bladensburg.
1807, Dec. 18 1810	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.  University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.  Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.  Free blacks disenfranchised.  Battle of Bladensburg.  British repulsed at Battle of North Point.
1810	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.  University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.  Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice- president, and congressmen.  Free blacks disenfranchised.  Battle of Bladensburg.  British repulsed at Battle of North Point.  Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to
1810	Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.  University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.  Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice- president, and congressmen.  Free blacks disenfranchised.  Battle of Bladensburg.  British repulsed at Battle of North Point.  Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."
1807, Dec. 18	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> </ul>
1810	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C.,</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3  1844, May 24	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3  1844, May 24  1845, Oct. 10	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore.</li> <li>U. S. Naval Academy founded.</li> <li>Constitutional Convention of 1850–1851.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3  1844, May 24  1845, Oct. 10 1850, Nov.4–1851, May 13	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore.</li> <li>U. S. Naval Academy founded.</li> <li>Constitutional Convention of 1850–1851.</li> <li>Second State Constitution adopted.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3  1844, May 24  1845, Oct. 10 1850, Nov.4–1851, May 13 1851, June 14	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore.</li> <li>U. S. Naval Academy founded.</li> <li>Constitutional Convention of 1850–1851.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3  1844, May 24  1845, Oct. 10 1850, Nov.4–1851, May 13 1851, June 14 1854–1859	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore.</li> <li>U. S. Naval Academy founded.</li> <li>Constitutional Convention of 1850–1851.</li> <li>Second State Constitution adopted.</li> <li>Rise of Know Nothing Party. Baltimore riots caused city to be known as "Mobtown."</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826  1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3  1844, May 24  1845, Oct. 10 1850, Nov.4–1851, May 13 1851, June 14 1854–1859  1859, Oct. 6	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore.</li> <li>U. S. Naval Academy founded.</li> <li>Constitutional Convention of 1850–1851.</li> <li>Second State Constitution adopted.</li> <li>Rise of Know Nothing Party. Baltimore riots caused city to be known as "Mobtown."</li> <li>Maryland Agricultural College opened at College Park.</li> </ul>
1807, Dec. 18 1810  1810  1814, Aug. 24 1814, Sept. 12 1814, Sept. 13  1818  1819, March 6  1824–1829 1826 1827, Feb. 28 1828–1848 1838, Oct. 3  1844, May 24  1845, Oct. 10 1850, Nov.4–1851, May 13 1851, June 14 1854–1859	<ul> <li>Viva voce voting at elections changed to voting by ballot.</li> <li>University of Maryland chartered as the College of Medicine of Maryland.</li> <li>Property qualification ended in voting for electors for president, vice-president, and congressmen.</li> <li>Free blacks disenfranchised.</li> <li>Battle of Bladensburg.</li> <li>British repulsed at Battle of North Point.</li> <li>Bombardment of Fort McHenry, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "Star-Spangled Banner."</li> <li>National Road completed from Cumberland to Wheeling.</li> <li>In M'Culloch v. Maryland, U.S. Chief Justice John Marshall interpreted Constitution to signify implied powers of federal government.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Delaware Canal constructed.</li> <li>Jewish enfranchisement.</li> <li>Baltimore and Ohio Railroad chartered.</li> <li>Chesapeake and Ohio Canal constructed (to Cumberland by 1848).</li> <li>Governor and State senators first elected by voters rather than by legislature.</li> <li>Samuel F. B. Morse demonstrated telegraph line from Washington, D.C., to Baltimore.</li> <li>U. S. Naval Academy founded.</li> <li>Constitutional Convention of 1850–1851.</li> <li>Second State Constitution adopted.</li> <li>Rise of Know Nothing Party. Baltimore riots caused city to be known as "Mobtown."</li> </ul>